

MEDFORD #103

Greetings from the East,

Brethren,

Though we are just getting started, we are already on our way to attending to the basic needs of our Lodge which include minor maintenance, plans for outside beautification and the development of our new web page is underway.

As of our first Stated Meeting, we will all be attending much needed Stated and Ritual practices. The Brothers who have offered their time to teach us have sacrificed their own time to make these classes available to us. If you feel the need to attend any of these classes, please feel free to attend as they come available. I must tell you that I am so very lucky to have the Officers currently serving our Lodge, and those who stepped up "just for one more year," along with the many who just seem to be there whenever the need arises.

I am so Blessed to have these Brothers around me this year. They all have offered their time and their guidance for which, I am very grateful.

Be safe & Stay Blessed.

Fraternally,
Larry Garcia WM

REAMES #66

Inspirational thoughts to start the New Year!

Experiencing miracles requires trusting your Angels and listening at all times and in all situations. A miracle may not always suit your ego's expectations. Do you realize that every good failure is actually a miracle in disguise? It all depends on how you choose to understand and deal with disappointment. When your goals are for your greatest good, they manifest in God's time and in God's way.

Let go of what the miracle may look like or where it might come from. Just believe that you are totally and completely loved by Divine Oneness.

Star Love,
Sylvia McCarthy, WM
